

I strongly oppose this measure to allow phone solicitation from banks and other financial institutions. We are bombarded daily with more than enough advertising without having them call us at home or on our cellular phones.